3. The Seminole County Sheriff's Office Pretrial Release Division shall recommend the appropriate level of PTR supervision, as defined below:

The first appearance judge may impose any reasonable conditions of PTR.

4. The Brevard County PTR Program or the Seminole County Sheriff's Office shall notify the Office of the State Attorney of any violation(s) of PTR release condition(s) which did not result in the defendant's arrest. The Office of the State Attorney may seek to revoke PTR as provided by law.

5. If PTR is deemed to be insufficient or unavailable pursuant to section 907.041, Florida Statutes, bond shall be set as follows unless the particular circumstances in the case necessitate a higher bond be set to ensure the defendant's presence at all court hearings or for the protection of the public:

7. The Sheriff's Office may recommend a defendant for release on PTR at any time, including when a monetary bond has previously been set. If the Seminole County Sheriff's Office Pretrial Release Division finds that a detainee should properly be released on PTR, it shall follow the above procedures in making a recommendation as to the appropriate level of supervision and shall have the case set on the next first appearance docket.
